

PMMLRSCH (Run/180/Pimmel Arsch)

Turn that record on
It's been quiet in here for far too long
When you talk it's merely air and sound
I pretend to listen instead in my head I count

1 - 2 - 3 - 4 - 5 - 6 - 7 - 8...

Please turn the heating on Cause it's been cold in here for far too long
Your eyes once used to warm my heart
Now it's bad blood that's heating us up

REFRAIN:

But you can only run too far
You're scared to death of life and all its flaws
You shed your skin to travel light
Don't think that's how you win this fight.

Please put that candle on Cause it's been dark in here for far too long
Your smile once used to light up my day
Now we sit in the cold dark silence and you run away
